

Under 26s FREE tickets scheme. Exeter Northcott registration form. (Form for 14 yrs +) Arts Council A Night Less Ordinary Scheme – free tickets for under 26s.

In order to book your FREE theatre tickets as part of the A Night Less Ordinary Scheme, you must first complete this registration form and hand it to the Box Office at Exeter Northcott Theatre. You only need to register once, so next time, you can book your tickets straight away.

How does the scheme work?

All you have to do is complete this registration form and return it to us. Then simply choose which show you want to come to for FREE and book your tickets in person at the Box Office or on the phone. FREE tickets are very popular as you can imagine and so we recommend you book your tickets as soon as booking opens. If you are planning on registering on the door, please arrive an hour before the show starts. Collect your tickets on the day, of the show 30 minutes before the show starts.

Terms and conditions

You must be aged 26 or under to qualify for the FREE tickets scheme. Photographic ID will be required on registration and collection of your ticket. Only 1 ticket per person per event can be booked, and the FREE ticket offer must be mentioned at the time of booking. Bookings can be taken in person or on the telephone but not online. Tickets will not be given out before the day of the performance. Any tickets not collected 30 minutes before the start of the show will be re-allocated or re-sold. The weekly allocation of FREE tickets will be sold on a first come, first served basis. We reserve the right to adjust allocations. Tickets cannot be exchanged with another person. Reselling a FREE ticket makes it void. On some events, an accompanying, paying adult must be present. Children under 14 should always be accompanied by an adult. Tickets are issued according to our usual terms and conditions.
